The DIMMER VIEW

by Max Goodwin

Reshape for Supervisors?

This intelligence has since been credited to at least a dozen other wise men.

It is being repeated here for two reason. One: that someone, someday, will credit it to the keeper of this column. Two: the more important reason: in the Lemon Grove-Spring Valley area there's growing adversity.

In Casa de Oro the Valle de Oro Planning Association, for all intents and purposes, was dumped by County government.

In Lemon Grove, the main business street was converted into a freeway without the consent of the people. Through the efforts of Supervisor Dick Brown, some adjustments were made in the traffic control barriers, but problems created by the conversion still exist.

More recently, a park/landscaping issue was called to election. Incomprehensible ballot language and lack of leadership on issues were among the reasons for its 4-1 failure.

One of the reasons for this shameful waste of patience, time and money is the illogical makeup of the County Board of Supervisors. Board Chairman Lou Conde said so last week in testimony presented to the County's Charter Review Committee.

Conde told the Committee it should consider increasing the number of supervisors. He suggested 7 or 9. His suggestion possibly stems from his feelings about absenteeism. He noted that no system exists for penalizing supervisors who are excessively absent from board sessions or hearings. The problem of size of the board and absenteeism may be related.

Here's how:

1 — Districts are so large, diverse and populated that one person cannot properly cover his present district.

2 — Absenteeism often results from a supervisor spending much of his time in the field trying to resolve his district's problems.

3 — Problems that are irritating many residents today never existed a decade ago when the board had a better supervisor/population ratio.

4 — Communities that didn't exist a decade ago have sprung up here and there in various districts, bringing with them problems that need resolution.

5 — A supervisor faces a severe problem in himself when he prepares to vote. Will he vote according to his feelings or according to the feelings of those who elected him?

There are other matters, too, which need resolution, but the object of this study is to keep the local picture in focus.

The planning association, street conversion, parks and landscaping are only the outcroppings of bigger problems that may soon emeerge.

It is the belief of many voters that those they elect try to make rules and enforce them without day-by-day concern that a lawmaker must have for his subordinates. That concern won't come until the districts are whacked up into elements small enough that his supervisors will be personally acquainted with most of the people in his district. Instead of 7 or 9, the board should consist of about 15 members. Districts should be, as near as possible, a a makeup of people with compatible makeup.

Supporting such a theory is former mayor of San Diego, Frank Curran, who is chairman of the County Charter Review Committee. (He also heads the San Diego Center City Association). Curran was as well known in Lemon Grove and Spring Valley when he was mayor as most supervisors are known in their own districts.

In a recent discussion with Curran about the possible cure for the ailments afflicting many unincorporated communities, he was ready to support the idea of an enlarged board of supervisors — which is to say, smaller districts. The discussion came to what kind of person would be needed to supervise a smaller, intimate district.

"You've got to get into office someone who sincerely cares about his community. The person should have a proven record of community service," Curran agreed.

Whether the Charter Review Committee recommends an increase in the size of the board of supervisors will not be known until the committee completes its study and files its report. It is hoped the committee will see a copy of this critique.

The problem with criticism is that the critic stops too soon. He doesn't use names to flesh out his opinion. In this case this critique is different. A name is suggested against the time when nominees will be sought.

No list would be complete without the name of James V. Dorman, the young attorney who had dedicated so much of his effort to community affairs here. Those who attend local meetings know him and respect him for his calm, rational suggestions and decisions. He is a stable resident with family, home and profession within the community that could be a small, happy district. His roots are deep here. He went through the entire Lemon Grove elementary school system; attended Helix High; obtained a BS in Economics at Pomona College and his law degree at CalWestern School of Law, San Diego.

He served four years of active duty in the Marine Corps and the reserve, achieving the rank of captain.

He is former chairman of the Lemon Grove Planning Association; former chairman of the Old Time Days Assn.; director of the L.G. Chamber of Commerce; past president of the L.G. Lions club; a member of the governing board of the L.G. School district; member of the board of directors of the L.G. Fire district, and a member of St. Philip's Episcopal church.

In should be noted, in closing, that if every supervisor had credentials such as these, there would be fewer problems left unresolved regardless of the size of their districts.

Energy Saving Grows

They were shooting for a fifteen per cent reduction in electrical energy use.

The San Diego Gas & Electric Co. has indicated that homeowners are complying with the request.

Product signs on the thousands of four-to-a-corner gasoline filling stations have gone dark because they are no longer open after nightfall. We suspect the electrical energy reduction is nearer thirty per cent.

If our judgment is correct there should be an extra day of electrical energy around here somewhere.

School Board Votes No On Special Tax Election

Taxes will not increase this year to pay added school costs.

Citing several reasons why he felt an election would be unwise at this time, school superintendent Dr. Robert Sutton recommended that the election not be scheduled at the meeting held at the LG Educational Center.

Dr. Sutton said the four reasons why the election would fail if it were held: there was no great staff support for it, the election would call only for increases of salaries a difficult thing to get support for, the LG District would be in competition with the Grossmont District, that is also planning a tax initiative, and that the mood of the LG voters was apparent after the recent defeat of the last tax election.

At the meeting Dr. Sutton pointed out, however, that an 8 percent salary increase was "justified and that teachers will not be happy with it."

Without the election revenue the District will be able to afford a 2.2 percent salary increase, a 3 percent cost of living hike, and still be able to maintain a $220,000 reserve, Sutton said.

Representatives of both the certificated and classified employees organizations were asked to go on record as to their feelings about the no vote for the election but they declined.

John Linn, the one member who voted no called on the audience for response but no opinions were heard.

At the meeting a report by the District Goals Committee was submitted to the Board by William Talbot. The report, which took two years to compile, suggested various areas of improvements for the LG District to strive for.

The Board commended the group for their efforts and asked them to continue in an advisory position. The Board also voted to extend the number of hours for this year's summer school.

Harold Ball was approved to be summer school director, Mike Meyer as principal, and Dan Heiseerman as administrative assistant.

Postal Service Says Letter Was Not Lost

Local Postmasters are calling on area news media to help correct misinfomation that the Postal Inspection Services of the U. S. Postal Service said occurred in wire service stories recently.

The wire story reported that a subpoena intended for the President, issued in Los Angeles and mailed to Washington had been lost. It indicated that the mailing had been handled in a careless or slipshod manner, the report suggested.

The story appeared in the WASHINGTON POST and other newspapers dated Feb. 12. The Postal Inspection Department said that its investigation had uncovered these facts.

1. The document was not mailed on Monday, Feb. 4, the date the subpoena was signed by L. A. Superior Court Judge Gordon Ringer. Nor was it mailed Tues. Feb. 6 when the subpoena was officially filed by court clerks.

2. The letter — actually a large 9 oz, 8½x11 brown envelope—was sent via certified mail with first class postage paid. It was not sent registered mail nor air mail.

3. The letter was brought to the Los Angeles Post Office by an employee of the Superior Court Wed. afternoon Feb. 6 and a receipt was issued showing the letter was not actually "mailed" until Feb. 6.

4. First-class mail from Los Angeles is given normal third-day service in Washington and airmail is given second-day delivery. An airmail letter given to the Postal Service on Wednesday would be delivered Friday; first-class mail would be delivered on Saturday.

5. The letter was receipted in Washington Post Office in time for Saturday delivery, but the Superior Court—and most other government offices — were closed for the week-end. Delivery was withheld until Monday.

6. The letter was made up for carrier delivery with other certified mail on Monday, Feb. 11, with the receipt form completed in advance for addressee on that date.

The carrier, a substitute, inadvertently did not take his certified mail with him. The error was caught by his supervisor, and the certified mail was delivered the following morning—Tuesday, Feb. 12—with the receipt form for Feb. 11 being used for acknowledgement.

7. At no time was the letter lost or misplaced. Normal delivery would have been made on Monday, Feb. 11. Actual delivery was made on Tuesday morning, Feb. 12—one day late.

The statement was issued here by both the Lemon Grove Postmaster, Nate Hale, and the Spring Valley Postmaster, William Fitzpatrick.

119 May Be Separated by High School

Jobs Depend on Tax Issue

They call it the Revenue Based Increase tax.

It's really the old override tax with a new dress and a new name.

But it is a money election just the same.

And if it does not pass on June 4, more than 100 jobs may be lopped off the payroll in the Grossmont Union High School District.

In addition to reducing personnel, there are other economies scheduled by Grossmont District trustees to accommodate a $2.2 million deficit in the 1974-75 budget if the override fails.

The June 4 election will ask voters to maintain the present $2.55 tax rate which is 38 cents over the legal maximum. If an election is not held, or if the election is held and fails, the tax rate will fall back to $2.17 for each $100 of assessed valuation.

The 38 cents override was approved for 5 years in 1968.

In all, 119 jobs may be cut. Included will be vice principals, counselors, psychologists, librarians, and first and second year teachers, according to Dr. Austin Sellery, district superintendent. Few, if any of the jobs are believed to be administrative.

Where Cuts Are

Personnel cuts can reduce expenditures by $1.1 millions with an additional $230,000 savings if extracurricuular pay to coaches and department chairmen is cancelled.

Rescheduling bus routes could save $150,000 and reducing expenditures by $10 a student on books and supplies would save another $200,000.

Tie Vote in LG Election

SAN DIEGO (CNA)—A $2.50 tax rate was voted for a Lemon Grove street project in which there were but six voters and the election ended in a tie.

The Local Agency Formation Commission voted the tax on request of the Board of Supervisors who wanted $2,600 spent in 1972 to improve Acacia ave.

A county service area was formed for the project, but residents divided three-to-three in a tax rate election Aug. 7, 1973.

The LAFCO officer told the commission that Supervisors, as a result of the election, had to set the tax rate for the current year at zero. He added that amendments to the state revenue and tax code now allows rates to be set for special districts formed between Jan. 1, 1972, and Aug. 31, 1973.

He has been rector of the Lemon Grove church for the past seven years.

'Muckraker' Anderson Calls For Impeachment, Cites H. Hughes Link

By Miriam Morrow

Jack Anderson, noted Washington columnist, said that "it takes a muckraker to appreciate the strength of this country" and "that nothing ... would strengthen our country more than the impeachment of Richard Nixon."

Anderson was this month's guest lecturer for Forum of the Foothills held in the Grossmont College gymnasium Monday night.

Anderson, a self professed "muckraker", who has been responsible for exposing various Washington scandals, covered three topics in his speech, Watergate, the role of the press and the energy crisis.

Anderson said that he had discovered the motivation for the Watergate break-in through his research. Watergate was the result of an effort to cover-up a connection between Howard Hughes and the Nixon family.

Anderson outlined a financial transaction between Hughes and Donald Nixon, the President's brother that caused political embarrassment for the President in the 1960 presidential campaign, and the 1962 California gubernatorial campaign.

A new connection between Donald Nixon and Howard Hughes in 1972, reported by the FBI, and an unveiled connection between Lawrence O'Brien, Democratic National Chairman and Hughes caused panic in the White House, Anderson claimed.

The fear that O'Brien might have revealed the Nixon-Hughes connection in the 1972 election campaign, and the fear that a $100,000 contribution given to presidential associate Bebe Rebozo by Hughes led to the Watergate breakin of O'Brien's Democratic Party office.

Claims Harassment

Anderson said that the discovery of these facts and the tactics of the "Plumber's secret police unit" which he claimed had personally harassed him after he began publishing Watergate stories, led to his call for presidential impeachment.

Zeroing in on the role of the press, Anderson said the press should be applauded for revealing Watergate, but instead they are blamed for it.

He replied to charges that the press was anti-Nixon by saying, "the press was euphoric after Moscow and Peking, but there is no way to be euphoric about Watergate."

Grossmonters of '34 Hold Grand Reunion

The Grossmont High School class of 1934 will hold its second "grand reunion" Saturday, May 25, at the Bronze Room, according to Andy Kitzman and Norrie West, co-chairmen.

"We are inviting Grossmont grads of '30 through '33, and '35 and '36, to attend the reunion. Grossmont had only 600 enrollment then, and you could know most everyone in school," West explained.

Fuel Stortage Still Plagues Goodwill

A second reminder that the gasoline shortage has caused a serious problem for Goodwill Industries. Goodwill normally runs 15 trucks to provide discards for the handicapped to refurbish in the main plant at 4005 5th ave.

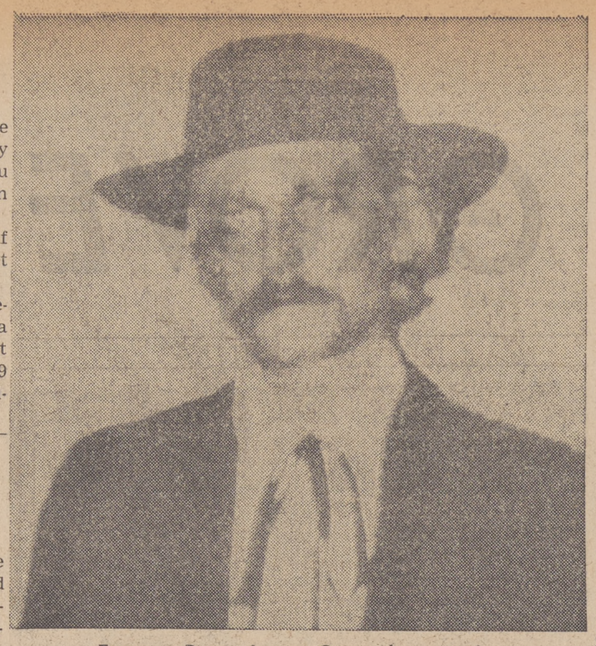
A monthly cutback of 30% in gas is causing a limit on the number of truck runs, and yet it is necessary, says Goodwill Director Eugene Morrill, to continue a steady flow of clothing for full employment of the handicapped.

Morrill urged the public to help by bringing their discards to any one of the 152 drop boxes in supermarkets around the County.

Goodwill has pledged its cooperation in the spring clean-up campaign conducted by the Safety Action Group of the San Diego Chamber of Commerce and the San Diego City and County War Against Litter Committee.

Goodwill will conduct its own "Clean Out Your Closets" campaign for fire safety, litter prevention, and for increasing the flow of clothing and shoes used to support its job-training and handcapped employment programs.

Morill suggested setting one of the specially constructed Goodwill bags on its flat base in an open position in each closet as a constant reminder to place in it unneeded clothing and shoes.



Terrence Burns, Lemon Grove drama major

Lemon Grove Student Stars In College Play for Thesis

A Lemon Grove college student will soon have a masters degree in theatre arts. In an unusual switch, his thesis will be what he puts on the stage rather than a conventional research and written method.

The student is Terrence J. Burns, son of Dr. and Mrs. Robert F. Burns, of 8337 Mt. Vernon st. Dr. Burns operates a Lemon Grove veterinary hospital. He is a student at Fresno State University.

In quest of his masters degree, Burns is "doing it all" in the stage presentation of Arthur Kopit's "Indians". He is doing the costumes and the props as well as directing and producing the play. He also assumes the starring role. The play will be presented at Fresno State's auditorium March 21-29. The play's quality, and an extensive critique, will represent a major portion of his thesis.

Burns attended St. John of the Cross Catholic School in Lemon Grove. As a youngster he appeared in numerous children's theatrical productions. Following his graduation from St. Augustine in 1965, he entered Fresno State where he obtained his bachelors degree.

'Best Actor'

At Fresno he appeared in "Juno and the Paycock", "Waiting for Godot", "Endgame", "Of Mice and Men", "Lysistrata", "The Great American Desert" and others. He received numerous "Best Actor" awards at Fresno State.

He has also appeared in stage productions in New York; worked with stock companies in Indiana and did several commercials for radio and television.

For background material and atmosphere for "Indians", he traveled to Wyoming and Montana. He visited Cody, Wyoming and the Little Big Horn scene of Custer's Last Stand.

In spite of his obvious abilities in the theatre arts, Burns probably will become at teacher after his M.A. He said he prefers a position in the northwest—the Buffalo Bill country.

At the opening of "Indians", Burns' parents, his sister and his grandparents will be in the audience.

Madonnas Topic

The women of St. Philip's Episcopal Church are sponsoring a free lecture by Martin E. Peterson, curator of Art for the San Diego Fine Arts Gallery, at the Church, Monday, 7:30 p.m.

Training, Friendship Extended to Mexican Firemen by LGFD

Four Mexican firemen who were in Lemon Grove for the recent Bombero training program were described as a "remarkable group of people that were very eager to learn" by LG Fire Chief Fred Dixon.

The four men, Chief Felix Marelos, Hector Rojas, Consequencid Lopez and Antonio Grimaldo were all members of the Veracruz airport fire squad. They had been chosen to take part in the Bombero program which is sponsored by the San Diego County Fire Chiefs Association.

The men arrived in Tijuana Sunday Feb. 17 and were met by members of the L. G. Fire Dept. Their week in San Diego County included a variety of training experiences. Monday they received instruction on equipment handling in Balboa Park, Tuesday they learned about boom and hose handling in Lemon Grove and emergency medical techniques in El Cajon.

The men went to Lindberg Field and NAS Miramar to observe airport techniques and learned about fire equipment maintenance and repair later in the week. Friday evening the L.G. firemen hosted a banquet for their Mexican guests at Elks Lodge in La Mesa, where awards were presented.

Chief Dixon said that the language barrier proved to be no real problem, explanations were done with the aid of translators, sign language and drawings.

The Mexican group returned to Veracruz Saturday. Chief Dixon said that the men paid their own travel expenses and the L.G. firemen volunteered their time to train them.

Dell joined the District in 1941 as an equipment operator, later woring as a mechanis, pipeline foreman, construction foreman, and assistant and acting superintendent. He was appointed superintendent in 1953.

Byron Miller, Helix general manager, pointed out that Dell has seen many changes in the District during his years of service.

"He has seen a rural community become a metropolitan center, and he has seen the transition from cast iron pipe to asbestos cement pipe," Miller said.

Ruta Lee as "Irma"

'Irma La Douce' Light and Funny

By Max Goodwin

Any play starring Ruta Lee would have to be light and pleasant because that's the kind of an attractive young lady she is. Her singing, dancing and acting ability are showcased at San Diego's Off Broadway Theatre in "Irma La Douce." But how do you explain that this light and pleasant musical is the tale of a Parisian streetwalker, and the men she keeps supplied with money she earns at her trade.

The comic-sweet love story was written by Alexandre Breffort and set to music by Marguerite Monnot. It was converted to English and finally re-arranged fo the American stage by David Merrick.

In it, Miss Lee is Irma la Douce, a lady of the street, or "Poule" in the idiom of the "milieu", — the Parisian underworld. There, a group of "mecs" or pimps are waiting for their payoff (grisbi) as she completes each hotel room assignment. Being a poule with a following of mecs is an honorable profession by milieu standards—a standard changed only slightly because the police inspector is a member of the group.

Dominates Stage

In these scenes Miss Lee dominates the stage with her lilting voice, her graceful dance and her obvious happiness and wit. She is at her coquettish best when she tries to hide some of her grisbi in her apparel.

If the situation in "Irma" is not easily accepted by American audiences it may be due to imaginary moral standards by which Americans rise above such earthy relationships. It's like putting respectability into San Diego's 152 massage parlors, as it were.

And that's what complicates "Irma." In it is introduced "Nestor" (John McCook, a fine young actor) who is an American law student attending college in Paris. The complication comes when he falls in love with Irma and she with him.

They set up a walk-up love nest and happiness reigns. But gradually the terribly important American morality creeps in. Nestor must alienate Irma from her mecs and stop her from plying her trade—except with him. For a while its heavenly.

Gradually she feels unrewarded. No self-respecting poule can have a happy existence in the milieu without a cade of mecs. Eventually, the two cultures clash. When she threatens to leave, he compromises. She may have one patron. A rich, nice, old one, if such can be found.

Rich, Old Man

He has an idea. He borrows 10,000 francs. He disguises himself as a rich, nice, old man and become her daily 10,000 franc patron. Then he rushes home, removing his disquise as he hurries, and is there waiting lovingly for Irma's return—with the 10,000 francs which he will use to pay her the next day. A revolving bank account, so to speak.

But he forgot the mecs and their claim on her money. He was forced to take a job of floor polishing in an office building to make up the difference between the money he gave Irma and the amount she brought home.

The three physical responsibilities wore him down. If he could eliminate the old geezer, he would, at the same time, dispose of the mecs. But how could this be done?

Ah! He has a solution. He will let the rich, old man commit suicide. But the police inspector connects Nestor to the old man and charges Nestor with the murder. He and the mecs are sentenced to Devil's Island. But they escape and the show has a happy ending.

Impossible, you say? Nothing is impossible with the frothy, vivacious Miss Lee on stage.

The story line is less naughty as a stage presentation than it is as it is written here. There is no objectionable language in it.

The cast has 13 characters, all of whom provide sterling performances. Doug Nye's five-piece orchestra amply filled the musical chore. It should be reminded that Irma is featured in six songs and five dances. All of them were performed strictly top shelf by Miss Lee.

It's a happy show to which the first night audience gave its stamp of approval via a last curtain ovation.

"Irma" will be presented nightly through March 31. Off Broadway is at 314 F st. Reservations can be made at 235-6535.

On April 4 California cyclists will join Acting Governor John Mills, in a two day bicycle ride from San Francisco to San Diego.

600 miles worth of pedal power will be called upon to spark interest and support for Prop. 5, a ballot measure that allows highway funds to be diverted for public transportation and pollution control.

"The bike riders will travel the Sacramento-San Francisco-Los Angeles-San Diego transportation corridor along which high speed ground transportation will be developed if Prop. 5 passes," Mills said.

"The shortage of gasoline has highlighted the serious consequences facing a society which relies upon the motor vehicle as its primary means of transportation," he added.

Interested persons who want to add their two-wheeled support for the tour should contact Mills, at the State Capitol, Sacramento, 95814.

IRS TAX ANSWERS

F. S. Schmidt, DISTRICT DIRECTOR, INTERNAL REVENUE SERVICE

This column of questions and answers on federal tax matters is provided by the local office of the U. S. Internal Revenue Service and is published as a public service to taxpayers. The column answers questions most frequently asked by taxpayers.

Q. Is it true that a retiree may be entitled to a tax credit for 1973 when he files his return?

A. Yes. If you are a retired U. S. citizen or resident, had $600 of earned income in each of any 10 calendar years before 1973, and had retirement income during 1973, you may be entitled to a tax credit. In addition, just by filling out a few lines on Schedule R and your tax form, you can get the IRS to compute the retirement income credit for you. See your tax form instructions for details.

Q. My husband and I are legally separated. I have custody of our daughter. Does this mean I can claim her as a dependent?

A. That depends. First, you and your husband together must have furnished more than one half of the child's support for 1973. Secondly, the child must be in your or your husband's custody for more than half the year.

If these conditions are satisfied, then generally the parent having custody of the child for the greater part of 1973 is entitled to the dependency exemption. However, there are exceptions to this rule. Your husband may be entitled to the exemption if he contributed at least $600 toward the child's support during the year and the decree of separate maintenance or a written agreement specifies that he is entitled to the exemption.

Another exemption arises if he paid $1,200 or more of support to the child in 1973 and you do not establish by a clear preponderance of the evidence that you furnished more for support.

Q. I heard that there are five tests that must be met for a taxpayer to claim a person as a dependent. What are they?

A. For a person to qualify as your dependent for 1973, the following tests must be met: 1) You must furnish over half of the dependent's total support during the calendar year; 2) Unless the person is less than 19 years of age at the end of the year or a full-time student during five months of the year, you may not claim him as a dependent if his gross income is $750 or more; 3) The person must be a member of your household and live with you for the entire year or be closely related to you; 4) He must be a citizen or national of the U.S. or a U.S. resident, or a resident of Canada, Mexico, Panama Canal Zone or the Republic of Panama for some part of the year; and 5) The person must not file a joint return unless one is not due but was filed merely to obtain a refund.

Q. I had a part-time job last summer to pay college tuition. I didn't earn enough to pay income tax, but I'm going to file a return to recover income tax withheld from my pay. Can I check off $1 of the tax withheld for the Presidential Election Campaign Fund?

A. No. You can only designate if you had at least that much tax liability.

Q. I pledged $100 to a charitable organization in December 1973. I was billed in January 1974 and just paid the bill. Can I deduct this amount on my 1973 return?

A. No. Contributions must actually be paid before the close of 1973 to be deductible on your return for that year.

Q. Can I file my tax return without my Form W-2?

A. You should make every effort to obtain your W-2 form from your employer to insure a proper return.

However, your return must be filed on time. If you do not have all your Forms W-2, report all your income and attach a statement explaining how you computed any tax withheld for which you claim credit, but for which you have no Form W-2.

If, after you have filed your return, you receive a Form W-2 for income that you did not include in your return, or if you find your estimates of income and withholding tax to be incorrect, file an amended eturn, Form 1040X. This form is available at any IRS office.

Q. Do you have a booklet that describes tax law changes for 1973 Federal income tax returns?

A. Yes. IRS Publication 553, "Highlights of 1973 Changes in the Tax Law," is available free from your local IRS office. Taxpayers seeking more details may purchase IRS Publication 17, "Your Federal Income Tax," from Internal Revenue offices and many post offices for $1.00. Mail orders may be made to the Public Documents Distribution Center, Pueblo Industrial Pk., Pueblo, Colo., 81009. The price for mail orders is $1.25.

State Tax Refunds To Average $110 With Payoffs to 6.5 Million

SACRAMENTO — State income tax refunds this year are averaging $110 each and already total almost $136 million with more than a month to go in the return filing period, State Controller Hugh Flournoy said.

"Last week, at approximately three-fifths of the way through the filing period, we mailed out 1,232,91' refunds with a total value of $135,886,737," Flournoy said, adding, "But that's only a beginning."

Flournoy said over 4.5 million refunds are expected to result from overwithholding, over 226,000 refunds will go to non-withholding taxpayers who overpaid estimates, and 1.75 million other refunds are expected because of the one-time special tax relief credit and the renters credit which are effective this year for the first time.

"This brings the expected refund total to 6.5 million as compared to slightly over four million last year," he said. "Even though the refunds mailed to date are slightly ahead of last year's pace, they have not gained greatly toward that higher total."

He urged use of the pre-printed piggy-beak identification and address labels which accompanied the tax forms. The labels speed up processing and provides faster refunds, he said.

Once the Franchise Tax Board, of which he is chairman, completes work on a return, the refund can be on its way within two days, Flournoy said. Last year almost all refunds had been made by mid-May, within a month of the April 15 filing deadline.

"We mailed over 145,000 refunds on March 6, bringing the total for March past 376,000," Flournoy said. "The pace will increase sharply from here on."

He warned that taxpayers who have waited this late to file must be especially careful that returns bear the correct name and address, correct social security number, and are properly signed. Use of the pre-printed label is the best assurance of avoiding delays, Flournoy said.

Bates Intends To Wrestle With Bear For Sup. Post

City Councilman Jim Bates described himself as the underdog in his bid to unseat County Supervisor Jim Bear, whom Bates described as "strongly financed by special interests".

Bates formally opened his campaign with a $10 plate luncheon at Balboa Park, March 6. Prior to the luncheon he explained why he is running against a man he helped put in office. Bates served as Bear's campaign manager in the Board of Supervisors primary in 1970.

Bates said that "experiences in that campaign changed my mind". Bates supported Bear's opponent, George Smith in the general election in 1970.

At the luncheon Bates emphasized that "simple honesty" would be the major campaign issue, but that he doesn't "intend to make any accusations against anyone", and that the courts should decide the issue of Bear's land dealings.

FLOODED PASTURE — Last week's storm flooded the pasture of Miller Dairy on Skyline dr. in Lemon Grove but did little damage there or elsewhere in the area. The storm measured 1.45 inches to bring the season total to 7.99 inches. Last year at the same time the total was 13.59 inches. In the photo above the four-legged Lemon Grove residents appear unperturbed by the creek brought on by the storm. Drainage from the pasture washed some mud down Alton dr. and Ensenada st. and knocked down a street sign.

'Tax Refund' Should Read 'Tax Credit' Says Deddeh

The wording on the renter's tax credit on the 540 income tax form is misleading, according to State Assemblyman Wadie P. Deddeh (D-77th).

The objection is the word "refund". It is a tax credit—not a refund. This should be noted by retired persons, particularly those who earned no paid income last year. These persons may not even have received a 540 form at all. And even if they did they may conclude that they are not eligible for the "refund."

In a communication to the news media, Assemblyman Deddeh says:

Dear Editor:

"I am asking your help to make certain that eligible Californians who rent their living quarters receive the full benefit of the law that is due them.

This is particularly important for retired citizens who may well be completely unaware of the fact that they are entitled to a cash benefit, varying from $25 to $45, even though they have had no earned income in 1973 and had no state income tax withheld.

If everyone in the press, TV and radio will form a sort of ad hoc public service project from now until April 15th, I believe every eligible renter will get the message. Unfortunately, many people are not registered to vote, and thus are not on the mailing list for legislative newsletters where the benefit has been described in considerable detail.

'Refund' Misleading

I would ask you to emphasize that people should not be misled by the word "refund". Many people will think it means a refund on state income tax only. This is not the case. It means a refund based on all state taxes paid, including such items as the sales tax, user taxes i'e' cigarettes and liquor, gift and inheritance, etc.

The state income tax mechanism (The Franchise Tax Board) is simply an administrative mechanism to make the renter's tax relief program workable and keep administrative costs at the minimum.

A constituent of mine wrote to me, saying that of 11 senior citizens he questioned, not one had even heard about the new program. So I urge you to lend the weight of the media to an effort to change this.

The fairs at College Grove, and Old Town will run from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. on the 23rd, the fair at Mission Valley is scheduled from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. on the same day.

Camp Fire Girls from all program levels will participate in the fairs with displays and exhibits featuring skills they have learned as part of their membership.

LG Volunteers For City of Hope Sought

The City of Hope urgently needs volunteers in Lemon Grove who will solicit funds door-to-door in their neighborhoods for the free, nonsectarian medical center during its annual June campaign.

Mrs. Betty Reichenbach, City of Hope campaign co-ordinator in San Diego County, may be contacted at 479-5992 for further information.

"The City of Hope treated more San Diegans last year than at any time in its 61 years," she said. "Funds from the campaign support programs of patient care, research and education on cancer and leukemia, diabetes, blood, heart and chest ailments, and certain hereditary diseases."

"It's vitally important that we have thousands of Volunteers for Hope," Mrs. Reichenbach said.

TAKE FIVE

By John E. Wirges

Shout it from the roof tops, yell it in the streets, treat it as an essential truth. Female girls of the opposite sex are great, make fine friends, excellent mothers and fair wives. They are truly worth the rib Adam had to give.

Girls have been held in high esteem here ever since this tourist first discovered they were different from boys. I must have been 13 or 14 at the time. All of a sudden my mother stopped taking me to the bathroom.

I remember girls then had longer hair than boys and wore engaging garments called "dresses."

Girls didn't play sports in those days, though they seemed to be around when the boys played. This was way back before Little League and baseball was fun. No parents around to tell you how things should be done.

Girls didn't play basketball or football, then either, if you don't count Sister Mary Joseph, who was quarterback for the 8th graders. She was also the best goalie we had in hockey. Her long black skirt was great for blocking shots.

Those were the good old days, with girls watching and yelling a lot, but except for Sister Mary Joseph, I don't remember any of them being very good sports.

Things are different now, of course. Girls play around a lot more and nuns don't wear those long black skirts these days. That's a shame. Those skirts sure were a big help in goal.

But it's great that girls are playing around more these days. Of course, they could over do it. There are some dangers that girls ought to consider before playing the more he-man sports like football and wrestling.

I mean, wrestling in the back of the friendly family auto is one thing, but to move the action out on a mat in front of all the other kids might be too much. Like, what girl wants any other girls to watch her tricks?

And football might be just too physical for a girl. Besides, there might be more attention given to the action in a pile up than in a runner in the clear. You might have to change some of the rules.

Fondling Foul?

Basketball is another sport that might need a rule change or two if girls are going to play with boys right out in the open. One suggestion of merit called for a four shot foul for fondling.

Of course, to change the scope of sports and the rules of behavior in athletic contests one would have to find athletic directors and administrators of both sexes that are intelligent, fair minded, shrewd, artful and honest. Unfortunately, there are few of either.

Some athletic directors, and their female counterparts, use the battle between the sexes in sports as a practice period, a warming up exercise for the really big events, like the war betwen the NCAA and the AAU, the Olympic Committee against everybody, established schools against newy cores and the "have" sports vs. those without a paying gate.

Money is also the peg athletic directors use to hang up female programs. They look at it and say, "If you don't make it, you can't spend it."

At San Diego State ,for instance, girl athletics and sports low on the pecking pole are facing serious curtailment due to fund failure largely caused by pie-in-the-sky basketball staging, poor football promoting by the front office and general ineptness in athletic administration.

But hold on there, folks. Such a cutback doesn't hold back the imaginative, free spirit types who play rugby on Montmuzma Mesa. Not them lads. The scrub squad fattened its budget by some $600 by posing in just shoes and smiles for a Playgirl Magazine centerfold. Everything figures to show in the June issue.

Now think of the play such a team picture could have had if Rugby were a coed sport? Girls in sports. It ain't such a bad idea after all.

Tom Trevelyan, ties own record

Gulls Out To Snap Mini Losing Streak

Out to snap a two game losing streak, the San Diego Gulls return to Sports Arena action tonight against the high scoring Salt Lake City Golden Eagles. Salt Lake is in second place in the Western Hockey League, one point away from first place Phoenix. San Diego is third but Portland is pressing—a point behind.

It will be the night left wing Tom Trevelyn will try to break his pro high record set last year. He has 25 goals on the season.

The Roadrunners will provide the opposition on Saturday night in an 8 p.m. Arena faceoff. Tickets for both games are now on sale at the Sports Arena box office and all Arena ticket outlets.

Only 12 games remain on the Gulls 1973-74 schedule, 6 on home ice and six on the road. The remaining road games include three in Seattle, two in Portland against the Buckaroos and one in Denver.

The home dates include the two this weekend, two more against Portland on March 19 and 22, a March 31 date against Salt Lake City and the final home game of the regular season, April 5 against the Denver Spurs.

Several team records can be set in these final 12 games. The Gulls have currently won 31 games on the season. The team record is 33 victories set on three different occasions. San Diego also has 52 power play goals to date. The club mark is 55 set in 1968-69 and again during the 1970-71 campaign.

Western Hockey League Standings

Phoenix	75
Salt Lake	74
San Diego	67
Portland	66
Seattle	60
Denver	48

Gull Notes: Defenseman John Miszuk missed only his second game as a Gull in 4 years and his first of the season last Saturday in Salt Lake City with a pulled groin .... Goalie John Adams now owns club records for most wins (29), games (57) and minutes played (3376) ... Again a reminder that the Gulls home game slated for Tuesday, March 26 has been re-scheduled for Tuesday, March 19.

Earnel Durden has accepted he position of offensive bakfield coach on the staff of head coach Tommy Prothro, the San Diego Chargers announced today.

An all-American halfback under Prothro at Oregon State, Durden rejoins his former coach after spending one year as backfield coach of the Houston Oilers.

Durden, 27, is a native of Los Angeles, where he gained All-City honors at Manual Arts High School. At Oregon State, he was an all-Coast wingback for three years and all-America in 1957 when the Beavers went to the Rose Bowl.

Durden coached at Compton High, Compton Junior College and Long Beach State before joining Prothro on his UCLA staff in 1969. He assisted Prothro at UCLA for two years and with the Los Angeles Rams in 1971-72.

'Golden Jock' Sports Banquet

May 2.

Mark it down for laughs.

It is the date of the 1974 Golden Jock Sports Award Banquet to be held at the Town and Country Hotel Convention Center.

Sponsored by the Sportscasters/Sportswriters Assn. of San Diego, the annual banquet pays homage in skit and song to the follies, foibles and flops of the community's sports leaders.

Previous winners of the Golden Jock were Sid Gillman of the Chargers in 1970, Alex Hannum of the defunct Rockets in 1971, Peter Graham of the Sports Arena in 1972 and the duo of C. Arnholt Smith and Buzzie Bavazi of the Padres in 1973.

Nominees for 1974 will be announced shortly, according to SSA President Matt Mitchell, sports editor of the El Cajon Californian. The banquet committee is headed by Max Goodwin, editor and publisher of the Lemon Grove Review, and Hal Clement of KGTV.

The banquet is open to the public. Priced at $25, tickets can be obtained from any SSA member or by contacting Pat Rogers at the Chargers office, 280-2111.

Unser Brothers Run One-Two In California 500 at Ontario

The Unser brothers stole the California 500 Sunday at the $25.5 million facility at Ontario.

The race, plagued by the energy crisis from the time it was announced; the late decision of the U. S. Auto Club on rule changes, and rain during the try-out and qualifying periods, nevertheless attracted almost 100,000 spectators.

Track president Parnelli Jones said an even bigger show would be run off next March.

Bobby Unser, the winner, crossed the finish line three hours, 11 minutes, 3.71 seconds after the start for an average of 157.017 miles per hour.

Jerry Gant of Irvine, finished third.

A. J. Foyt, the favorite to win, hit some debris on the 23rd lap and his oil tank was punctured. He was leading the field when the incident occurred.

1971 California winner Joe Leonard crashed at the head of the stretch and fractured his ankle and suffered head cuts.

Mike Hiss hit the wall on the 18th lap; Jerry Karl hit it on the 33rd and Gordon Johncock lost a right, rear wheel on the straightaway on the 72nd lap. None of these drivers was hurt.

Aztec Baseballers Face 3 Week Stand

The No. 1 rated college baseball team in the country, the Arizona U, will visit San Diego State this weekend as the Aztecs open a three week home stand.

The Wildcats of Arizona are 19-1 and could improve on that before playing San Diego State as Arizona hosts Iowa U, in a four-game series before playing the Aztecs. San Diego State and Arizona meet Friday at 3 p.m. on Smith Field and then play a doubleheader Saturday at noon.

Aztec coach Jim Dietz is uncertain of his pitching rotation for the Arizona series. He could go with a freshman trio of Steele, Doug Morrison and Dave Smith. The Arizona series is the start of a 15 day Aztec homestand in which San Diego State will play 16 games. After the Wildcats, Utah U. visits here on March 18, 19 and 20; Washington U. on March 21 and 25, Santa Clara on March 22 and 23; the California Golden Bears on March 27 and 28, and Dominguez Hills State on March 29. The March 20 game against Utah and the March 25 game against Washington are doubleheaders.

S. Bay Speedway Starts Third Season Next Week

San Diego county's only multi-purpose motor racing facility, the South Bay Park Speedway in Chula Vista, will start its third season of operation under new ownership and management when it presents its first 1974 race, Saturday night, March 23rd.

Don Basile, who has been involved in the promotion of auto and motorcycle racing events for over 25 years as the right hand man for J. C. Agajanian, is the new owner of the 50 acre plant located on Otay Mesa, a mile east of Brown Field.

Basile has several plans for the track, including a new racing surface, a new quarter-mile dirt track inside of the action-packed half-mile clay oval. A new ⅝th mile steeplechase motorcycle course and a "cycle park" which will be open to off-road riders daily.

He is negotiating with various sanctioning bodies — USAC, NASCAR, and AMA. This indicates major league racing events for the San Diego area during 1974.

The opening race will be the first annual "Cal Rayborn Memorial", AMA flat-track motorcycle race March 23rd at 8 p.m. The race is dedicated to the memory of the late Cal Rayborn of Spring Valley, one of the nation's top motorcycle racers, who was killed in a road racing accident in New Zealand last Deember.

The nation's leading two-wheel racers are expected to take part in this program, which will be a benefit for Rayborn's widow and sons.

At Coliseum Friday

'Windmill' Brings Fancy Punches

Friday is ladies' night at the Coliseum. Ladies and libbers alike will be admitted free when a male escort buys a reserved or ringside seat.

Friday is also the night when that amazing carpenter of Ventura "Windmill" White —makes a return appearance here.

"Windmill" is appropriately named. He has punches that are more amusing than awesome. There's the "ice-tongs;" the "around-the-tree" and a few that defy definition. The ice-tongs results when his opponent is belted in the middle hard enough to cause him to lean forward. "Windmill" catches him alongside both sides of his head with a simultaneous right and left hook. Around-the-tree aptly describes the result of the opponent charging and is caught under "Windmill's" left arm with his head sticking out toward "Windmill's" rear. "Windmill" then swings behind his own back, catching the hapless opponent full in his unprotected face.

White, a light-heavyweight with a 38-13-5 record has scored two KO's and got a draw since he fought here last.

His opponent this time will be Jesse Burnett, of Los Angeles, with a 12-0-0 record. They will have at it for 10 rounds—or less.

White got a technical draw here last time out following a badly cut brow from the butting head of Hildo Silva. Since then he earned three KO's and two draws; one of which was in Philadelphia against Billy Bailey.

Two six-rounders will accompany the headliners Friday. Lightweights Rudy Hernandez and Victor Abraham will mixe it in one prelim.

Carlos Barrigan will try Kenny Brooks in the other six-round lightweight class. The latter two are stablemates of the up-and-coming Jimmy Heair.

Chucho Garcia

A companion set-to, also a 10-rounder — pits Chucho Garcia against Lalo Barriente. They're junior middleweights. Chucho, from Reynoso, Mexico, is popular here. He has an impressive 57-23-4 record and has never been knocked off his feet. Barriente, from Bakersfield is a brawler-type fighter and his record is 17-6-3.

It's too bad Coliseum impressario Mickey Davies didn't schedule ladies night last week. The babes would have seen a classy battler—a battler with an education. That would be Armando Muniz, 150, 10th rated welterweight who scored an unsurprising KO over Walter "King Cobra" Charles, 145, who fights out of Los Angeles. Muniz, new with a 32-6-1 record, will meet Eddie Perkins in Tucson March 22 in a fight that may very well gain him a title shot. In spite of his impressive 20-3-1 record, Charles didn't figure to beat Muniz despite his record. Muniz caught him with a flurry of rights and lefts. The final left knocked his mouthpiece fully 10 feet away as he collapsed. The KO came at 1:29 of the third round of a scheduled 10 round bout.

Muniz is an articulate boxer. No "dem" and "does" from him. He holds a 33-5-1 degree in counseling and will earn his master's this year.

Other results

In other bouts Friday, Rocky Haverly, 162, San Diego, registered a TKO over Jeff Priestly, 161, San Diego, in 2:20 of the fourth round of a five round bout. The fight was stopped by referee Fred Hayes when Priestly was unable to defend himself.

Sam Wilson, 187, San Diego, outpointed Mel Marshall, 207, of Oceanside in a five-round fracas.

In the final bout, another Muniz, Javier, brother of the winner of the main bout, far outclassed Julio Lopes, 138, of San Diego.

Seats Friday night will be $3, $5 and $7.50 and may be reserved at 232-8362 or 232-1904.

'Funny Cars' to Race Saturday at Orange

A pair of wheelstanding Funny Cars share top billing with the Southern California Fuel Altered Circuit Saturday evening at Orange County International Raceway.

Wild Bill Shewsberry's "L.A. Dart" and Bob Perry's "Fugitive Corvette" from Phoenix will compete three times in a rare wheelstand contest slated to begin at 7 o'clock.

These fuel-burning vehicles are restricted to solo exhibition appearances elsewhere, but the ultra-wide Irvine facility allows Southern Californians an enviable look at some side-by-side, two-wheeled drag racing. Both cars are rear-engined and both have exceeded 135 miles per hour during recent wheelstand exhibitions.

Fuel Altered drag racing dates back to the days when the sport's founding fathers first outfitted their stripped-down Model T Fords with larger V-8 powerplants. A quarter-century later, fuel-burning Chrysler engines have replaced the trusty flathead Ford and tubular frames supported pretty fiberglass bodies, but the original 1923 wheelbase must be retained. This odd combination of a 1600-horsepower engine and a short, 9-inch chassis easily qualifies a Fuel Altered as the most difficult of all race cars to drive, yet 6.80-second bursts at 215 miles per hour are commonplace wherever these classic coupes and roadsters appear. Eight of the nation's quickest are featured in Saturday's open competition.

Reduced winter admission prices still apply at OCIR and allow patrons their choice of any spectator-side seat for $3. Kids 6-12 are admitted for $1 and the ample parking is free. Gates open at 12:30 Saturday afternoon for time trials, and feature racing will follow at 7 p.m.

The Raceway is located opposite Lion Country Safari in Irvine at the Moulton Parkway exit of the San Diego Freeway and the San Canyon exit of the Santa Ana Freeway.

Women Gymnasts Hosted by State

San Diego State will host this year's AIAW (Assn. of Intercollegiate Athletics for Women) Regional Gymnastic Championships. Two classes of events will be held Saturday at 10 a.m. and 7 p.m. in Peterson Gym, on State campus.

Top women gymnasts from California, Nevada and Hawaii will perform in the Olympic All-Around events which includes Balance Beam, Uneven Parallel Bars, Floor Exercise and Side Horse Vaulting.

The competition qualifies participants for the National Championships scheduled April 5-6 at Cal. State U., Sacramento.

Improvements Underway at Del Mar Track

Steel framing on a $1.8 million, 49,000-square-foot addition to Del Mar Thoroughbred Club will be completed this week, Donald B. Smith, executive vice president and general manager told Sportscasters/Sportswriters Assn. Monday the the group's weekly meeting.

Scheduled for completion by July 1, in time for the 1974 Del Mar meeting, the addition will provide 1,400 Clubhouse seats and other improvements. These include 200 box seats, new jockeys' quarters and administrative offices, Clubhouse mezzanine betting area and cocktail lounge and enlarged Turf Club and lower Clubhouse betting areas.

Smith denied that the finish line would be moved to accommodate Thoroughbred Club habitues. He said "the $2 bettor is still the 'sacred cow' at Del Mar. Offend him and you've offended motherhood."

Smith said there were no problems with ecologists when the Club applied for building permits. He said Del Mar would be the prettiest facility in America for its size. He said that Hialeah and Santa Anita shared the "most beautiful" title today.

San Diegan Is Best Bet Against Russian Wrestlers

The Russians are rolling their big guns into Peterson Gym March 27, but they better not turn their backs on one small calibre weapon in the American arsenal.

Jim Steiger from USIU, perhaps America's top candidate for a wrestling gold medal in the 1976 Olympic games, will face another 21 year old, Vladimir Yumin and the explosion may be heard all the way to the Kremlin.

Yumin won a bronze medal in the 1973 World Games in Teheran, a meet in which Steiger did not compete. This will be their first confrontation and Steiger admits that he has no "book" on Yumin.

Yumin won a bronze medal in the 1973 World Games in Teheran, a meet in which Steiger did not compete. This will be their first confrontation and Steiger admits that he has no "book" on Yumin.

The pair will meet in the 125½ pound class, the third event of the 10-card match sponsored by the San Diego Wrestling Foundation.

"I'll get him," said Steiger who, almost without local fanfare, has become a world renowned performer. "It really doesn't matter who it is, when you get on the mat they all look the same."

The former Madison High star, now a student at USIU normally wrestles best at the 114½ pound matchup but to strengthen the American team he has volunteered to go up to the 125½ pound event.

Any doubts that the Russians would be competitive in their upcoming meet with the USA National Team, came with the announcement of the aggregation which will represent the Soviet Union.

Top Athletes

The 10-man team includes 28 year old Zagalav Abdulbekov in the 136½ pound event and 27 year old Vasiliy Suhljin in the 180½ pound match. This duo has compiled a total of five gold medals in world competition in the past two years.

"They're bringing their first team," smiled Dan Dierdorff, chairman of the San Diego Wrestling Foundation.

The Soviet wrestlers have compiled a total of 15 gold, three silver and two bronze medals in world competition since the 1972 Olympics in Munich.

Tickets are $3.50 for the USA-USSR meet and can be purchased from most San Diego County High School wrestling departments, San Diego Federal in Fashion Valley or through Ship's Service at Naval Training.

USD Cagers Finish With 16-11 Season

USD's 1973-74 basketball season concluded with a play-off spot in the NCAA West Regionals and coach Jim Brovelli is looking forward toward next year optimistically.

USD dropped a 60-54 nod at Sonoma State in the post season activity but finished with an overall 16-11 won-lost record including wins in six of its last eight appearances.

Highlights of the campaign were victories over Pacific-8 member Washington State U., NAIA play-off contestants USIU and Grand Canyon and NCAA playoff entrant UC Riverside. San Diego handed Grand Canyon its only loss of the year.

The graduation of five seniors, two of whom were starters and the top two scorers in school history, will be felt but early recruiting may already be solving part of this problem.

Brovelli's recruiting must turn up one or two guards capable of handling the ball in addition to scoring plus three or four front line men. The Toreros expect to begin announcement of signups of recruits within three weeks.

NOTICE OF TRUSTEE'S SALE
Foreclosure No. 131688-FL

On April 4, 1973, at 10:35 A.M. Cranston blames both Congress and President Nixon for "long gas lines, rising unemployment and soaring prices of food." On possible impeachment of the president he says "The people of the country will have to be satisfied there is a fair trial."

Diplomate Status Awarded Dr. Grubb

Dr. Ewin C. Grubb, of Lemon Grove Medical Group, has been named a diplomate of the American Board of Family Practice (ABFP) as a result of passing a certification examination.

To achieve diplomate status Dr. Grubb took the intensive 2-day written examination designed to prove his ability in the areas of internal medicine, surgery, obstetrics, gynecology, pediatrics, psychiatry and community medicine.

He must continue to show proof of competency in the field of comprehensive, continuing care of the family by being certified every six years. No other medical specialty requires diplomates to prove competence on a continuing basis. To qualify for the examination doctors either must have completed a 3-year family practice residency or have been in family practice a minimum of six years and successfully complete 300 hours of continuing medical education approved by the American Academy of Family Physicians.

The latest group of diplomates took the fourth examination offered by the ABFP. Most are members of the Academy of Family Physicians, the national association of family doctors. The AAFP was chiefly responsible for securing specialty status for family practice.

Griff Track, Swim Teams Look Good

On a day when most athletes would be planning indoor activities coach Ron Vavra sent his Grossmont Griffin track team out against the rain and the hapless Southwestern College Apaches.

The Griffins had more trouble with the rain as they creamed the Apaches, 105-36. It was Grossmont's first conference win this year and 33rd over a five-year period against no losses. The Griffins have won 37 dual meets without a loss overall, including two this year.

Only because the Griffins have an all-weather track were they allowed to get Friday's meet in. The wet track and swamp field event areas held down any chance of outstanding marks or times.

Grossmont is faced with another lop-sided meet this Friday as the Griffins go against the hapless San Bernardino Valley College Indians in San Bernardino.

GC Swimmers Good, Too

Coach Dave Millovich's Griffin swimmers rolled to their seventh dual meet victory and fourth consecutive Mission Conference win 1974 by drubbing Saddleback College 68-33.

Grossmont has now gone through 22 conference dual meets without a loss since the swimming program started four years ago.

The Griffins will be heavily favored when they meet San Bernardino Valley in the Indians' pool tomorrow afternoon.

Muckraker Anderson

He cited figures that claimed 92% of all newspapers supported Nixon before Watergate.

In a question and answer period following the address Anderson described recent investigation into the energy situation. He said that there were vast supplies of crude oil, but he could not be sure of the amount of refined supplies. He said that his future efforts will be aimed at discovering the causes of the oil shortage.

A moment of levity was added to the evening when a mouse ran across the stage, and Anderson referred to the closeness of Disneyland.

Miller Runs For Clerk's Office Again

Bob Miller, who was fired while he was seeking the post of San Diego County Clerk, is going to try again.

A veteran of 13 years in the County Clerk's office, Miller entered the race in 1972 and his votes came within one percent of unseating Jesse Osuna, the incumbent, Osuna has said that he will not run for reelection.

A resident of the county for 28 years and past president of the Ocean Beach Town Council, Miller has also been with the Federal Court system in San Diego County for over three years.

He is a past president of the San Diego County Employees Assn. and past president of the California Superior Court Clerks Assn. As a past district commander of AMVETS, Miller enjoys wide support among the Veteran groups.

Miller claims his education, training and experience qualify him to competently handle the duties of this office.

Miller says the office of County Clerk has too long been under the control and domination of a few people, and it is time to approach the functions of the office with a new fresh outlook.

Miller has named Thomas C. Reed, retired U. S. Immigration and Naturalization Attorney, to be general chairman of the campaign, and Thomas Monleon, President of the C. & M. Packing Company as finance chairman.

There is pending in the Superior Court an action by Miller challenging his firing as unfair and unconstitutional.

Morrison, Wirgowski Added by Chargers

Reece Morrison, veteran running back of the Cincinnati Bengals, was handed to the Chargers in lieu of Virgil Carter, who was to come from the Bengals to the Chargers in a trade for quarterback Wayne Clark.

Carter, instead of coming to the Chargers, signed with the Chicago Fire of WFL. The Chargers are attempting to void the original trade because Carter is said to still be ailing with a shoulder injury which idled him all last year.

Later in the week the Chargers obtained a defensive end from Philadelphia for an eighth draft choice. The end, Dennis Wirgowski, is with the Chargers on a conditional basis. He must make the 47-man cut or he is out.

He spent four years with the New England Patriots and two with Philadelphia. Wirgowski is 6-5 and 257, originating from Purdue.

Morrison is also a six-year veteran. He was with the Cleveland Browns 1968-1971. He is 6-0 and 205. In 1969 he was at his best with a 5.0 rushing average.
